 ter know you are wise to her rat-fink informing service, and make it clear that such un-speakable behavior is far more damaging to her than it is to you.
 Stan doesn't sound as if he deserves much more of your time. Tell him so and send him on his way.

Dear Ann Landers: Please tell "Cast Aside" that the waitress her husband is running around with lives next door to me. And I, too, wish the big jerk would go back to his wife where he belongs. I haven't had a good night's sleep in three months on account of these two.

My bedroom window looks straight down into her living room and the view is perfect because they never draw the draperies. Sometimes these two lunatics turn on the phonograph and dance until 2:30 a.m.

I tell myself every night I won't look, but my curiosity always gets the best of me. The sooner this affair is bust-ed up the better. Maybe if you print my letter it will help.—20-20 VISION.

Dear Vision: Your eyes may be in great shape but you have a serious case of nose trouble — the kind for which there is no known cure. My condolences.

Ann Landers' frank and informative new book, "Teen-Agers and Sex" (E-50) is now available at your book store.
 Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Sears Will Offer Class In Knitting

If you've been yearning for a beautiful "Hand Knit"—learn to make it yourself, at the new SEARS sponsored KNITTING SCHOOL.

Beginning this month, a ten-week knitting school adapted to learners as well as experienced "knit and purlers" will be held in each of the 16 Sears, Roebuck and Co. Stores throughout the Los Angeles and Orange counties.

The course will offer both daytime and evening classes. It is designed for women, men, schoolgirls, career girls, everyone who may want to learn the fine points of knitting from pattern selection to the final stitch.

At the end of the ten-week course, students will have completely knitted a cardigan sweater as part of their classwork. They also will have learned the art of knitting with different colors and materials, making button-holes, blocking, trimming, and how to read instructions so that they can knit dresses, coats, hats, socks, gloves and stoles, an exciting, interesting and rewarding pastime or hobby.

Under the program, individual students will receive one and one-half hours of instruction on the same night each week (or in a daytime class which the individual may select) for a period of ten weeks. A maximum of 10 to 15 students will be admitted to any one class to allow ample individual instruction.

Prospective students may register at any SEARS store where application blanks and additional information about the schools will be available in the Notions Department. There is a small fee for the course and enrollment is limited.
